TUSKEGEE, ALA., July 28, 1875. DR. C. J. MOFFETT—My Dear Sir: Justice to you demands that I should give you my experience with your excellent medicine, Teethina. Our little girl, just thirteen months old, has had much trouble teething. Every remedy was exhausted in the shape of prescriptions from family physicians. Her bowels continued to pass off pure blood and burning fever continued for days at a time. Her life was almost despaired of. Her mother determined to try Teethina, and in a day or two there was a great change—new life had returned—the bowels were regular, and, thanks to Teethina, the little babe is now doing well. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Lexington Lodge No. 149, A. F. and A. M., Lexington, Mo.

Your committee to whom was referred the duty of reporting appropriate resolutions commemorative of the virtues of our deceased brother, Charles Christian Wallace and the high esteem and fraternal regard in which he was held by the members of this lodge, respectfully and fraternally report the following, and ask that the same be by our secretary entered on a memorial page of our lodge records.

Brother Wallace died at his home in this city on Sunday morning, May 19th, 1901, aged sixty-six years. He was born in Woodford county, Kentucky, in the year 1835, and came with his parents to Lafayette county, Missouri, when eight years of age. Brother Wallace received his education in the private schools of this county and at the Masonic college. On the 8th day of December, 1873, Brother Wallace was duly made an Entered Apprentice Mason in Lafayette lodge No. 32 A. F. and A. M., at Lexington, Mo. On the 13th day of April, 1874, he was duly passed to the degree of Fellowcraft and on the 11th day of May, 1874, he was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason. On the 19th day of December, 1881, Lafayette lodge No. 32 and Lexington lodge No. 149 were by authority of our Grand Lodge consolidated, and upon such consolidation Brother Wallace with many other members of Lafayette lodge became members of Lexington lodge No. 149 and from the date of said consolidation of said lodges until his death Brother Wallace remained a true, faithful and honored brother of Lexington lodge. In June, 1874, Brother Wallace was married to Miss Lizzie M. Kennedy of this city, who survives him. Of this marriage have been born six children, Bessie H., Charles C., Jr., Libborn E., Carlyle, George C. and Margaret C.

Brother Wallace was elected and served two terms as register of the city of Lexington, and was elected and served eight years as recorder of deeds in and for Lafayette county. In the discharge of his official duties Brother Wallace was courteous, efficient and strictly honest. No complaint was ever heard against him for inattention to his official duties or impolite treatment of those with whom he transacted business. Brother Wallace like the most of us had his disappointments and burdens, but these hindrances were in a large measure overcome and forgotten by his optimism, his remarkable industry, energy and tenacity, and by his frank generous and cheerful disposition. The warm cordial and unselfish shake of his hand was an index to the many noble virtues of his head and heart. After a very able and impressive funeral address by Dr. Manly, our deceased brother was buried May 20th from the Baptist church with Masonic honors and his old comrades of Lexington Camp No. 618 of the United Confederate Veterans attended in a body to pay the last honors to the body of their true and faithful friend and fellow soldier.

It is meet and proper that mourning friends and brothers should pay a last and tribute of respect to departed worth by an expression of their common sympathy, and to recall to mind the many virtues of him they shall see no more on earth; Be it therefore

Resolved, That we cordially sympathize with the bereaved family of our deceased brother, who have lost an affectionate husband, a kind and indulgent father, and the best of friends.

Resolved, That we deplore his death, and that in it, society has lost a most valuable citizen; the Masonic fraternity an estimable, efficient and worthy member, and all a warm and devoted friend. As a Mason, he was pure, zealous and faithful, and ever devoted to the principles of the order. As a friend, always true, frank, kind and generous. As a citizen, prompt and efficient in the discharge of his duty. As a charitable man, the widows and orphans can testify that he never turned a deaf ear to distress nor sent them away empty handed. As a Christian, it is a consolation to his family and friends that he died in the triumph of his faith.

Resolved, that the brethren will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, that the secretary of the lodge deliver a copy of this preamble, and these resolutions, under the seal of the lodge, to the widow of our deceased brother, and that our city papers be requested to publish the same.
